Among non-profit fundraisers, Racquet for the Cure is a small project, with big potential. In 2000, the inaugural Racquet for the Cure event in Denver, Colorado raised a scant $200 for the Susan G. Komen Foundation. But it grew to $600 the following year, then totalled in the thousands each year thereafter ... to reach a grand cumulative total of $102,000 in 2016.
